Worked as a Blogger and JavaScript Developer where I wrote posts related to new JavaScript Technologies and helped building the Website.

Okiyo Linux   Dinhata, West Bengal
Graphic Designer   February 2016 - July 2016
Here, I did some work related to Graphic Designing for a while because of my interest.

Hobbies & Interests

I like writing code in JavaScript and Python. When I'm not coding, I love taking photographs, playing Guitar, and sometimes, I juggle football.

For fun, I make logos for the tools I build.

I am @CodeDotJS on Github and ~rishi on npm. These are some of the places where I put all my work. I run two blogs as well where I put my thoughts and works related to life and programming.
